

Please find attached a message sent on behalf of London Protect and the office of the National Coordinator Protect and Prepare in relation to an incident last night during which a number of persons were arrested for terrorism offences in North West London.

Please follow us on Twitter @LondonProtect

Download London Protect Message