The Government's COBRA Committee will sit this morning.

A further update will be provided as soon as possible but, in the meantime, please monitor media news channels for police statements regarding the incident. We would recommend that business review their security procedures and ensure that relevant staff are aware of their responsibilities.

We ask the public to remain alert and report suspicious behaviour to the Anti Terrorist Hotline on 0800 789 321 or to call 999.
