The National Campaign Against Fees and Cuts have planned for a march and rally today 15th November are due to form up at 1300 in Malet Street WC1E, then from 1400 the gathered will march to Parliament Square via Montagu Place, Russell Square, Southampton Row, High Holborn, Shaftesbury Avenue, Haymarket, Cockspur Street, Whitehall ending at Parliament Square, where they intend to hold a second rally with an expected dispersal at 1700.

Organisers state they are expecting attendees from far and wide with attendance around the 5000.

A proportionate policing response has been developed to deliver the MPS Strategic Intentions of the Command team, put in place for this events. NCAFC March 15 11 2017

See attached map showing the route.