POSSIBILITY

DORTMUND, GERMANY — 11th APRIL 2017

Introduction

The Metropolitan Police Service (MPS), British Transport Police (BTP), City of London Police (CoLP) and the office of the National Coordinator Protect and Prepare (NCPP) are aware of, and are monitoring, the incident that has taken place in Dortmund, Germany, yesterday.

Details of Incident

- At about 1950 hours (Local Time) on Tuesday 11th April 2017 three explosive devices detonated next to a German Football Club (Borussia Dortmund) coach, on route from their hotel to Signal Iduna Park, to play a Champions League match against Monaco.
- One person inside the vehicle and one police officer escorting the vehicle were injured.
- Two premises have been searched and one person arrested, another person is also being sought in connection with the incident.
- German Federal prosecutors are leading the investigation, which is now being treated as a terrorist incident.

Advice & Further Information

We would recommend that sporting organisations keep their security arrangements under review and consider the following advice:

- ⇒ To be vigilant and aware of surroundings
- ⇒ Not to advertise intended routes/means of travel (including managing social media, posts etc.)
- ⇒ To prepare a contingency plan if not already in existence (and practice it either live or via a table top)
